

Bid on a Moose Hunt Excursion

Available at the NEAA Auction on Friday evening, May 11, 2012, will be four (4) Moose Hunt Excursion Gift Certificates offered by Arvid Göransson of southern Jämtland in Sweden.

Each certificate entitles one individual to a seven-day (7) moose hunting excursion during September 10th – 24th, 2012 or during September 09th – 23rd, 2013 in North Sweden with Arvid Göransson acting as host. Meals (hunter's fare) and lodging will be inclusive with wilderness bath and/or shower and toilet. Individual travel expenses and/or airfare are not included. Recommended air travel from the United States would be into Stockholm-Arlanda International Airport (IATA: ARN) and then by regional service, such as Scandinavian Airlines, to Åre Östersund International Airport (IATA: OSD) in North Sweden.

Each moose hunt will last on average 3 to 4 hours, trailing a Norwegian Elkhound in arduous terrain of rolling hills, forested mountains, and river valleys. If you're not up to the demanding hike, you can go with a sniper and sit in a special forest location.

For comfort wear practical clothes in layers with a sweater and/or windbreaker as well as rugged walking shoes. September in Sweden is normally mild with occasional rain and average daily temperatures around 60-65 degrees Fahrenheit. In the northern regions of Sweden the average daily temperature is around 52 degrees Fahrenheit.
